Kelley's Ferry.

Special to the News:

Everything is lively at this place.

If it has'nt rained the past few days I dont suppose it could rain hard enough to keep Silas Anderson from going to Elec McNabb's on Sunday. Don't blame you, Sile, just keep going.

Albert Davis was in this part again Sunday. Dont ask him what he was here for.

Joe Hicks, of Whitwell was in our midst Sunday,

Kelly Hartman made a business trip to Chattanooga last Saturday If the river rises over its banks it will be very unfortunate for Kelly as the girl that he goes to see every Sunday lives on the other side.

Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Newson went to Chattanooga last Saturday.

Miss Belle Anderson was smiling more than usual Sunday. Who was

Mr. R. L. Watts, of Alabama, was visiting relatives at Stanley and this place the past week.

Robt. Richey returned from Jasper Wednesday night.

Mr. Isiah Newson and son James, returned Sunday from Sequachee where they had spent the week.

Thomas McNabb, of McNabb Mines, and Miss Mary Powers, of this place visited relatives at Savannah Sunday.

What made Willie Hartman afraid to read the News Sunday. Was it because of the box he got at the box supper?

When Mr. A. J. Houts gets his wagon made over we shall hear from him.

Wm. Howard and James Massy went to town Saturday.

Mrs. Caroline McNabb was visiting at the ferry Sunday.

Ahistorian from McNabb Mines at the ferry Sunday.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets in-flamed you have a rumpling sound or imperfect bearing, and when it is en-tirely closed deafness is theresult, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nihe cases out of ten are caused by catarra, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous sur-

MCNABB MINES.

Special to the News.

Mr. James Francis did not visit the Ferry Sunday. I know that some one was looking sad.

The young lady that was all smiles last Sunday was wearing a very sad face last Sunday. I wonder what was the matter.

Allen McNabb, of Savannah was in Needmore Sunday but did not visit the hotel. What seems to be the matter, Allen?

Cupid's arrows. We are getting ready for a heavy holiday and winter trade. To the largest general stock in the Valley we are adding new goods every day. Our department store plan seems to have met with the approval of the buying public. And not only has our plan of business met with approval but the prices at to be popular with such a motto as ty. this: "Quick sales and small profits, once a customer always a customer." These are the kind of transactions we always try to make and if courteous treatment counts for anything should hold our customers even up to the proverbial "forever."

STEWART & ALLEY.

The News has several invitations to spend Christmas in Whitwell. Miss Addie Arledge visited at
